

Attendance was booming and buyers snapped up works by F.N. Souza, Anish Kapoor, and Picasso at New Delhi's recent art summit. Rebecca Byerly explores the country's creative revolution

Read more of this article at The Daily Beast